

THE ACT OF HOMAGE

Taken from 'For the Fallen' by Laurence Binyon (1914)
Read by Councillor Sandra Shallcross

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, stead and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted;
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old
As we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
We will remember them.

HYMN - JERUSALEM

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountain green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

POEM – 'Remembered Still Those Souls' by Ernie Rowe (2019)

Read by Councillor Sajid Hussain

Remembered still those souls who tried
To save the world, but many died.
A moment stolen for a tear,
As we recall those unlived years.

The camaraderie that flew those souls back home
to those they knew,
And loved them dear and held them close
But for our sakes released to foes
The silence that they leave behind.
In space to calm the troubled minds of those they loved –
And can't rewind.

Again this day we give our thanks
For those returned from serving ranks.
And them 'as gave it all away
Forever in our minds will stay.
